36.3 36.4 36.5	Bro Geirionydd Play Park Remedial Work: Clerk advised that an update had now been received from David Dudley, CCBC, stating that following several site meetings with potential contractors, the scope of the work had increased with alternative funding streams being investigated to cover these additional costs. Clerk to continue to progress Resurfacing of All-Abilities Trail: Clerk updated that NRW required preparatory tree works along the trail before the resurfacing works could take place. Jay Butters had met and agreed the works with NRW, and a quote had been obtained from Frank Smith of £1,120. An indicative cost for materials had also now been supplied by NRW of approximately £2,000 with Council holding sufficient monies within the allocated reserve to meet the overall cost. Due to health and safety concerns, members agreed to proceed urgently based solely on the single quote obtained from Frank Smith in order that NRW could then begin the resurfacing at the earliest opportunity Other issues of health and safety: Cllr Griffith raised concern over the NRW tree felling at Llyn Crafnant, particularly the poor signage installed advising of the works. It was felt that due to the type of heavy machinery being used a road closure may be appropriate. Clerk to contact NRW to raise concerns.	ACTION Clerk to maintain contact with Conwy CBC to update further on the Play Park remedial work at the June meeting RESOLUTION Council resolved to agree Frank Smith's quote of £1,120 for the tree works required to enable NRW to undertake the resurfacing of the all-abilities trail PENDERFYNIAD Penderfynwyd cytuno ar ddyfynbris Frank Smith o £1,120 ar gyfer y gwaith trin coed sydd yn angenrheidiol i alluogi CNC i ail-wynebu'r llwybr pob gallu. ACTION Clerk to contact NRW to raise concerns with current tree felling works at Llyn Crafnant
